Saudi Oger is the Strategic Partner of the “Global Competitiveness Forum”

Under the auspices of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, Saudi Oger is sponsoring the 4th “Global Competitiveness Forum” – GCF – as a Strategic Partner with the theme “Sustainable Competitiveness”. The event will be held at the “Four Seasons Hotel” in Riyadh from the 23rd of January till the 26th of January 2010 and is organized by the Saudi Arabian General Investment Authority – SAGIA.

At the GCF, several initiatives will be announced for increasing the public and private sectors’ competitiveness in the Kingdom which add to the previous initiatives of the GCF such as the Responsible Competitiveness Index, King Khaled Responsible Competitiveness Award, Indicator of the fastest 100 Saudi companies in terms of growth, Michael Porter’s Award for Creative Strategies, Initiative Development of the Administrative Leaderships in the public and private sectors in collaboration with Oxford University.

The 4th GCF 2010 will host 100 attendees from top corporate leaders, political leaders, experts, academics, etc.

The forum will address the key issues concerning the Sustainable Competitiveness, the recent developments in the international economic system, the role of the governments and the private sector for activating the Sustainable Competitiveness in terms of incentives, requirements and challenges as well as the environmental issues. In addition to this, the forum will focus on the International Financial Crisis.

It’s worth mentioning that Saudi Oger’s support for this event is based on the success generated from the previous GCF by which Saudi Arabia achieved the 13th place globally for the best data competitiveness.
